Explanatory Notes on Main Statistical Indicators

Percentage of Graduates in Primary Schools Entering Junior scients to the proportion of school-age students in junior scoolary schools (regular junior secondary schools) to the load number of junior school-age children Enrolled a refers to the proportion of children seroulled at primary schools to the total number of primary school-age children (including recorded children, but excluding blind, dear and mute children). The formula is:

Percentage of School-age Children Enrolled a refers to the proportion of children enrolled at primary schools to the total number of primary school-age children (including recorded children, but excluding blind, dear and mute children). The formula is:

Percentage of School-age Children Enrolled Total Primary School-age Children at School 100% Total Primary School-age Children and Primary School-age Children Enrolled Total Primary School-age Children and Primary S